The Rebound Foundation - Marda’s House Springfield
Their goal is to provide transitional housing to women and children survivors of domestic abuse and educate youth on dating violence and healthy relationships. Through Marda’s House (MH) transitional housing program (THP), women survivors can enjoy clean, stable housing for up to 6 months while they work toward independence. Housed residents participate in outreach case management, financial planning and individualized goals during their stay. There are housing options for both single women as well as a woman and her children.
